Carnebello Cow ears

Dog Snacks

Feed material for dogs

Eggersmann Carnebello Cow Ears is a natural, pure chewing snack which is highly digestible and offers a nutritional rich complement to your dogs´ daily meal. As no additives are used in our dog treats and it is a single source protein product, you can feed it without risks to sensitive dogs. Our Carnebello Cow Ears provide a long lasting chewing experience while they are helping to keep your dogs teeth clean. Due to the carefully drying process of our Cow Ears, they are characterized by a high protein and mineral content. Your dog will love to chew Carnebello Cow Ears as a tasty and healthy alternative.

Feeding recommendation:

Our Carnebello Cow Ears is no complete feed for daily use, but you can offer it several times per week to support the dental hygiene of your dog.
Please don´t forget to offer enough drinking water and even if cow ears are generally considered safe, please stay around while your dog is chewing it, to ensure your dog doesn´t swallow the whole last bit and choke.

As we are offering a completely natural product, the chews can look very different in colour, form or size.

Composition: 100 % Cow ears

Analytical constituents and levels: 80,0 % Crude protein, 8,1 % Raw fat, 4,2 % Crude ash, 7,4 % Moisture
